DCM: Liz F. reporting (a) 3rd Quarter Area Meeting this past Sunday, went really well. Lots of positive feedback – people were impressed by our volunteers and breakfast hosted by the Willpo YPAA Service Committee. Thank you! There were 90-100 attendees. (b) Our district's nominee for the guest observer, Judge Nancy Butts, won and will be attending EPGSA in November. (c) Registration for EPGSA is open - deadline to reserve a room is 10/8. Hotel and conference registration to be done separately. Meals are included with hotel. Volunteers needed. See Liz or check Area website for details. Voting this year to select next Area 59 panel. GSR's, speak to your group about your attendance and make arrangements in advance. (d) The four motions voted on last district meeting passed. (e) Two new motions were made, each passed: 1. Area 59 will provide one "Virtual" Delegate's General Service Conference Report (DCR) annually [two-year trial (2005, 2006), then review effectiveness], and 2. All items submitted to Pre-Area officers meeting will be distributed to the Area DCMS prior to the quarterly meeting. (f) Mini Assembly II this past Saturday. Our Delegate, Pete B., reported back on General Service Conference. Copy of Pete's report provided via email to GSRs, AGSRs, Officers, and Committee Chairs. (g) 2025 International Convention will be in Vancouver July 3-6, 2025 (registration opens 10/10/24). (h) New opening for an AAWS Nontrustee Director, volunteer position. (i) Plain Language Big Book was approved. (j) Two new pamphlets in development: The Transgender Alcoholic and The Asian Alcoholic. (k) General Service Board released a 13-page report of inventory held earlier this year. (l) La Vina will continue to be printed, but an advisory action was passed to create a 5-year plan to reduce shortfalls. (m) 18 interviews conducted at International Convention of Young People in A.A. approved and will be available.
